The Troubadour staff of 1972 dedicates this book to beakers, to schedules, to deficiencies, and to Miss Brown.

What does one person give to another?

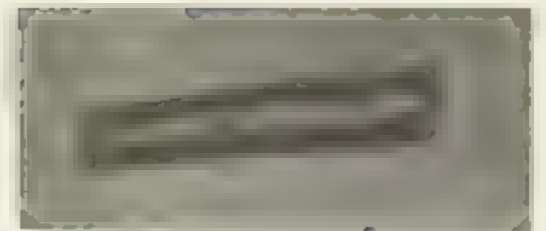

He gives himself of the most precious he has, he gives of his life . . .

In thus giving of his life, he enriches the other person;

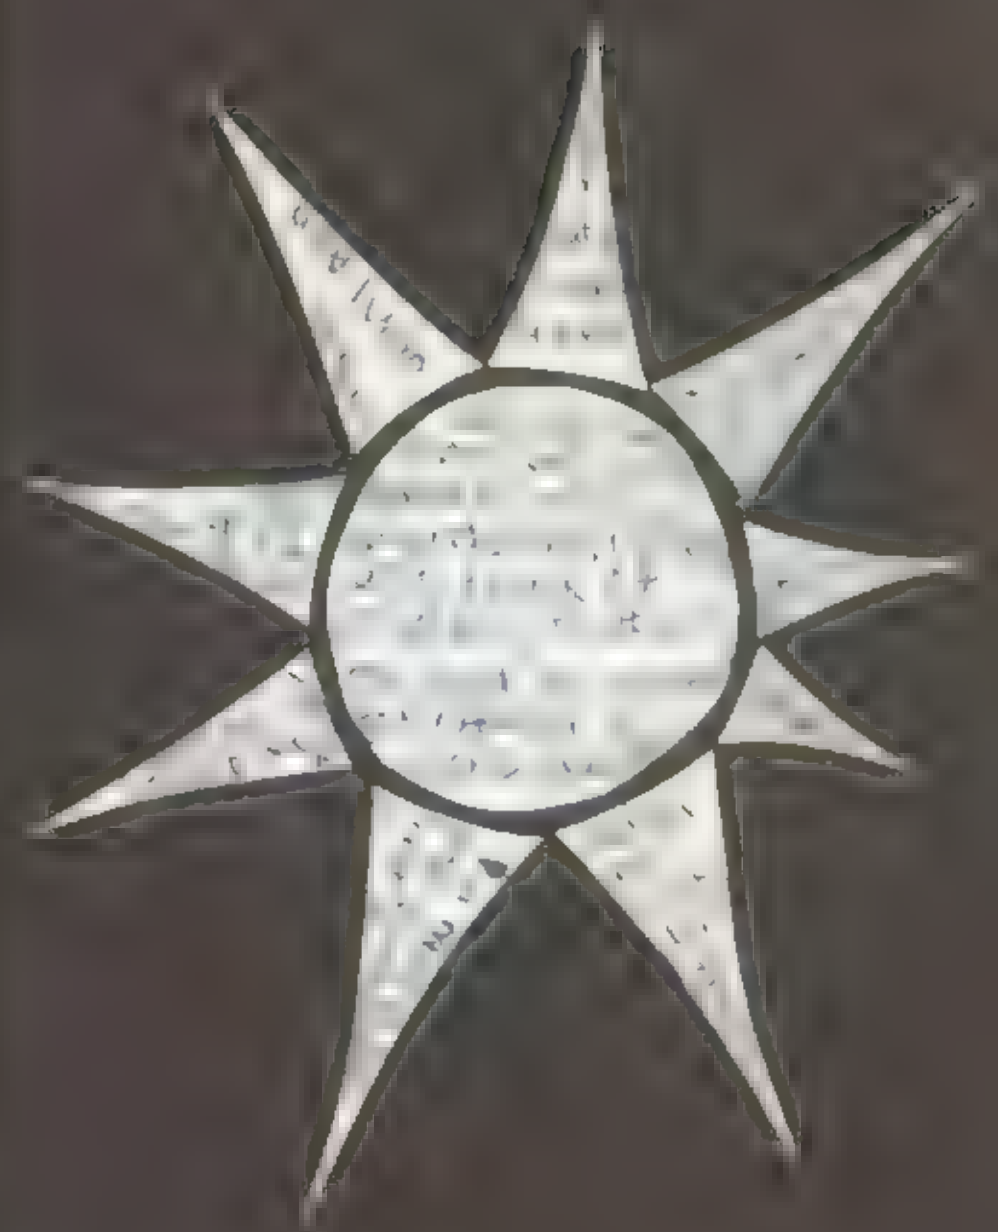

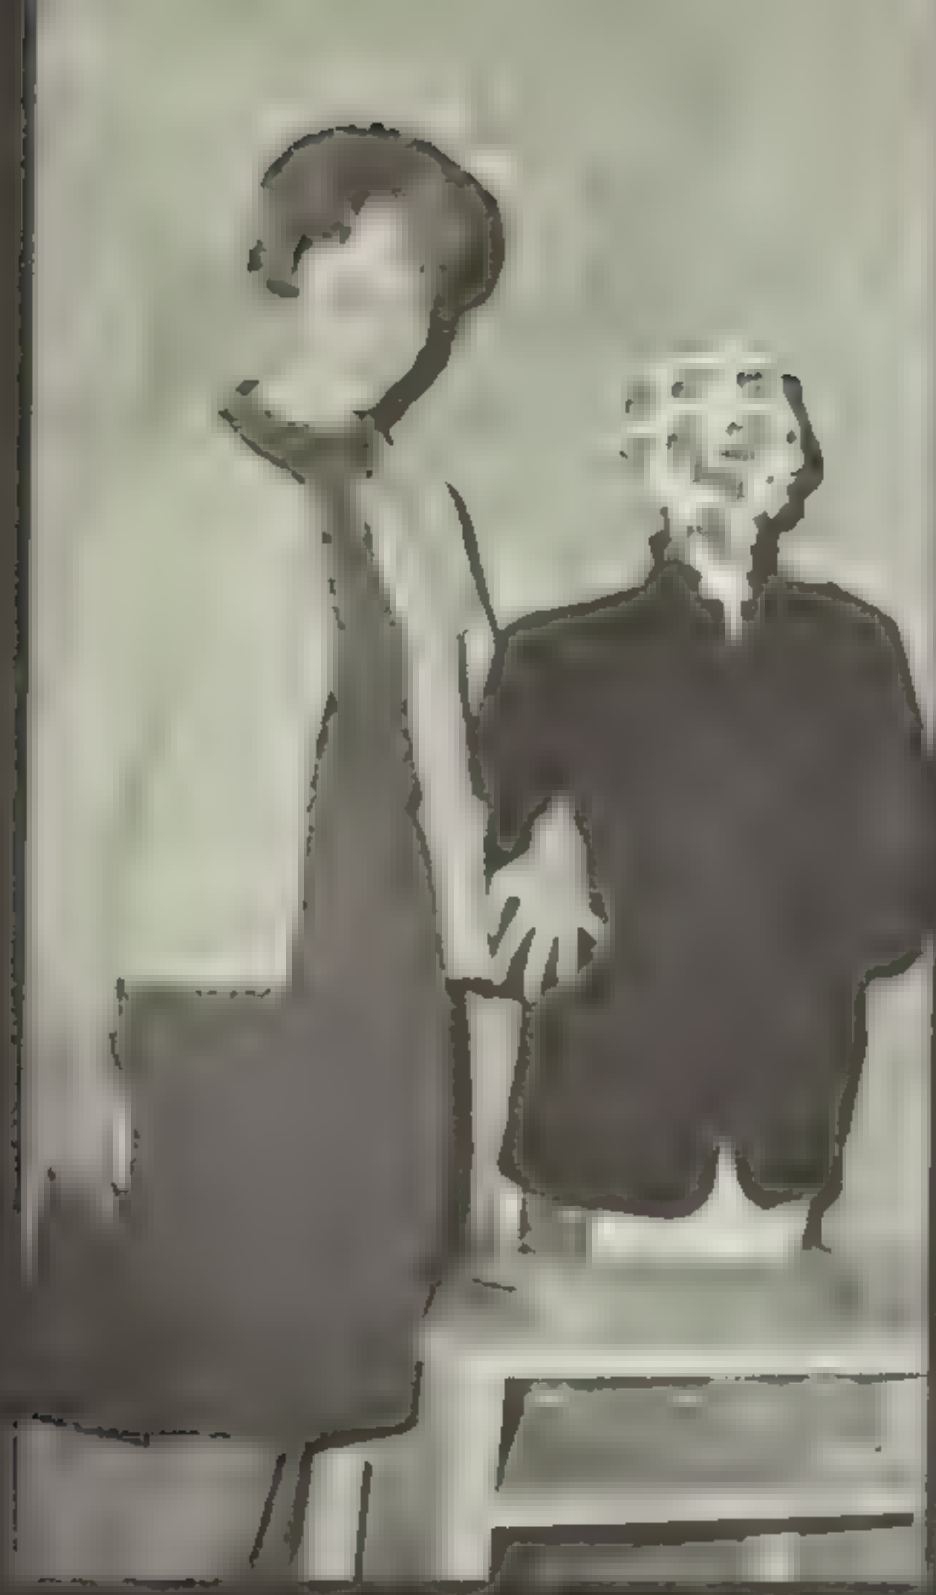

He enhances the other's sense of aliveness by enhancing his own sense of aliveness.

He does not give in order to receive; giving is in itself exquisite joy!

Katie,
 It was so hard to find a place to sign your book, but I finally found a page that has a quote which can express better than I ever could our friendship. Katie I really can't say enough that this is the end, for I'm sure we'll see each other often.
 You know as well as I do that won't be as often as now, but that makes it all the more special. KATIE I LOVE you and all that comes with you. We've shared so much this year there's no way I could put it all down on paper, but that's the way it is. You know me better

Junior Ring Ceremony

One small time in a year of our lives,
We will walk away holding a few of the memories in our hand.
A bit of the tears, a bit of the laughter and a bit of the people.
One small ring holds that which we have only before held in our minds.

It is a tradition we believe in—One we share differently than those before us.
It encircles our hearts to help us build the bridges.
We are stronger in our happiness, Enthusiastic in our existence and Joyful in our togetherness.

 MISCHIEF. THESE YEARS SEEM TO BE GOING SO FAST,

Dear Katie,

Only four more years to go! I hope they go as fast as these last two! Nothing I sure was and! So was being with good old Sister Deb! Have a really fun summer & be sure to wear all your garments! I know I will. Be good.
 Ellen

little what am I doing? ... I'm not sure I can that time and to pick your high school and future friends while your young (or something like that). Well I would see in your eyes now when I first got to know you that you were one of mine. I know that we will always keep in touch and you will come to my funeral. We have not been in a split in a while which is a good sign... we know what to expect from each other and I feel I know you as well as I'll know my history (I hope) I'll always love Mary Beth for leaving those few days and we became friends together not just Mary Beth's friend apart. Remember - "A A man" Charles Overlook toilet, John (I'm sure) you have gotten over him a little, crazy things, with Mary Lou especially over "The Thought For The Day" the night you went for a swim in your pajamas and you and I... getting up at six to get a cigarette getting out for exercise, seeing Mary Woods at the beach (which), spending the night at Dad's (Papa's) superhigh boys and obviously, Dad (what a crack up), crazy (your crazy!) leaving for a party and while Dad & Beth to LA (I'm sure) and John's trying to get a tan and all the bees, we're in your twelve-hour bus (when you want it ask) the you do hear our cute little other. So hear following, setting my hair, a real mess (it really hurt), you yelling "Oh! ---" in a talk on that round-about thing is the war zone? my mom saying if I feed on the seat (what a blue!) etc etc etc etc etc.

I could go on forever and ever continuing writing the crazyest and happiest times of my life. Oh! when did you say to Mary Lou about me leaving the quarters? I know you'd were young. You're a great person Kate and I'll always remember you. I'm saying this for fear. So I better say, thank you until tomorrow, the next day, next week and stop saying I'm not ugly. It's worse to say I think I am and I do have a damn ugly body, no matter how hard I try.

Katie,

It was sure fun knowing you this year. I got to know you a lot better. Never forget good ole Religion class with Sister Susan. You're a darling person and have a very darling personality. Stay as you are and you'll get what you want in this world. Good luck in the years to come and best wishes. Have a nice summer and be good. Your friend,
Jan

Katie the friendliest girl I knew!

It was sure great this year with you around to brighten up the day! You were always smiling and laughing which made everyone feel just great. Remember "if you smile at me I will understand because that is something everyone everywhere does in the same language" (Stephen Stills). Love ya always Laurie Rybackyk

Katie,

This year was one to remember! It was really fun those times that we had the time together to laugh. Next year we've got to have more classes together. Spanish was so much fun, and I'll try to get those papers to you much faster next year. (although I'm not taking spinoli II) I wish you'd take P.E. next year so we could hide in the showers again!! Have a beautiful sunshine summer, have good time with the people who keep you happy. love,
Stew

Katie → you know I never really knew you last year, but your friendship has become special to me. You were great in art - I thought we would never make it, but we did! In homeroom you really brightened things up. This summer will be great at the beach and some all your rowdy activities till then. Katie, thanks for all the fun times we had laughing in art and don't ever change because this world needs more people like you. Let's do some stuff together ~~next~~ during summer okay!

Love, Janet.

Katie,
We just have to get together this summer. Because friends were meant to be together, even for a little while. I hope this summer will be proper for all of us. We have to have a giant picnic at Lucy and possibly meet some of the other sex. Isn't this boring? I am counting on you to teach me to swim or else when my boat sinks I'll drown. Or well C'est la vie! Be good and be yourself.

I love you,
Joan

Katie,
It's been really great knowing you this year! You're a really swell friend! Have a really terrific, fantastic, fun summer. Keep smiling and stay happy!

Love and friendship,
Laura

Love,
Annie

Katie,
I don't think
we will ever forget this year. How could we! I learned a lot going to P.H.S and people like you who are so beautiful made me feel like i never left. Be good in the summer and i hope i will get to see you sometime. You
Love ya,

Katie, I will write you soon I'm not sure if what to say, I mean I should. But I don't oh well, you had a great summer
 I hope you never take care (typical huh?)
 god bless
